Safety and Impacts

Julie Guinea

Hard to believe it's been 30 years today since Anton had his workplace accident where a switchboard he was working on exploded in his face. God was looking after him that day and here he is 30 years later, an awesome husband, fantastic father and killing it in his business. I must admit I had a little tear today thinking how different life would have been if God wasn't looking after him. Love ya Anton Guinea and so happy that I get to do life with you.
