Anton Guinea

Anton Guinea has been working with leaders and their teams to improve their wellbeing since 2004.

Anton helps leaders to develop psychologically safe and high performing teams.

Since January 2020, Anton has personally delivered over 1,300 individual coaching sessions.

Anton's sessions are built on energy, engagement, and enterprise thinking.

What separates Anton from the other trainers that deliver similar programs include:

- Anton has worked his way up from being a tradesperson to a manager and understands what strong leadership requires
- He has led teams of planners, tradespeople, and project coordinators in a range of industries around Australia
- Anton's big why is based on his experience with poor leaders, and wanting to ensure that leaders are provided with all of the skills required to have a positive impact on the wellbeing and the psychological safety of their teams
- He is qualified with a HR Degree, a Psychology Degree, and is currently completing a Master of Research into how leaders can be better at leading under pressure
- Anton is qualified to deliver DISC Profiling, Resilience Profiling, and Emotional Intelligence Profiling (which are all relevant to this training program)

And delivering training programs is only one of Anton's skills. The impact that he creates is delivered through one-on-one coaching programs.

Anton's coaching programs:

Are individually tailored

Include input from the coachee's leader (Leader's Leaders sessions)

Anton has had coaching clients from between 3 months, and up to 2 years
